TOYS AND EQUIPMENT

There are a number of toys in the third bedroom and some kids books on the landing shelves. They are here for your enjoyment but please don't take them away. There are some games in the dresser in the kitchen - please try to keep all the pieces with the right game and put away when finished.

TV

The TV is a smart TV and there is a Netflix account provided. If a previous guest has left the Netflix account logged out and you would like to use it, please contact us for login details.

PS2 for those wet days or long evenings. Do help yourself to the games, but please leave them here for others to enjoy. Some of the PS2 games have an adult rating, so be aware if your children are let loose on them that some games are inappropriate.

The fiction on the bookshelf is up for swaps, but please leave the reference books and books about the Island here.
